COMMUNIQUE DE PRESSE - PRESS RELEASE - PRESSEMITTEILUNG

The new meeting planners guide “Meet in Luxembourg 2010/11” is published

Luxembourg is a first class European destination for business and convention tourism. Not only does the city offer a high quality infrastructure but it also exudes the unique flair of a capital city and a region of high cultural and tourist attractions.

Published by the Luxembourg Convention Bureau (LCB), the official congress bureau of Luxembourg City, the brochure “Meet in Luxembourg” is the perfect reference tool for organisers of conferences, meetings and events, a genuine “Who’s Who” of Luxembourg’s congress tourism. Its 47 pages constitute an invaluable medium for promoting the destination and organising events for up to 3,000 people in Luxembourg. The guide lists the relevant contacts and technical details of the various meeting facilities and event locations as well as suggesting interesting sightseeing programmes in the city and the region.

As the expert in this area, the Luxembourg Convention Bureau plays an important role in helping to organise events. Thanks to its impartial status the LCB is the ideal advisor for prospective event organisers. The office facilitates meetings with local coordinators and advises decision makers on the ideal location for their venue or hotel or the best suited local partners. The LCB’s 57 partners are selected for their know how, the quality of their services, their creativity and their bespoke hospitality.

Published in French, German and English, the manual “Meet in Luxembourg” may be obtained free of charge at the:
